COMPETITION PROPOSITION

|----------------------------|----------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| I. Division: | teams | | |
| II. Groups: | Senior-female, senior-male | years 92,91,90,89... | (6th kup and higher) |
| | Junior-female, junior-male | years 93,94,95,96,97 | (6th kup and higher) |
| | Youth-female, youth-male | years 98,99,00,01... | (6th kup and higher) |

Technical degree has to be corresponding to the highest declared degree in the membership card at the registration.
It isn't allowed to lend the technical degree!

III. Events and categories: The competition will be realized in pattern (tul) and sparring (matsogi) according to the rules ITF/EITF. The system in both events is pyramid (K.O. system), in case of smaller number of teams the organizer retains the right to change the system to "each to each".

Every school can nominate unlimited number of teams for tul and matsogi.

- Junior and senior male teams have to be composed of 5 competitors and one optional reserve (5+1).
- Junior female, senior female, youth male, youth female teams have to be composed of 3 competitors and one optional reserve (3+1).

Notice: In case of smaller number of members in particular teams the school can complete junior teams with youths and senior team with juniors (adequately women).

TUL

Elimination: 1 designated pattern – set by lots
Finale: 1 optional and 1 designated pattern

The designated pattern could be chosen maximally to the pattern which was practiced by the competitor with the lowest technical degree on the last examinations. The optional pattern could be max to the highest pattern for the next examination of the team member with the lowest technical degree.

MATSOGI

Elimination, finale: sparring 1 round 2 minutes

The team which gets 6 points (4 points by 3-member teams) is going to be the winner of the sparring.

IV. Number of referees: Each school ensures at least 3 qualified referees for the whole day. The referees must be dressed according to the ITF/EITF rules. In case the school doesn't ensure the referee it has to pay for each undelivered referee 500 CZK. All referees have the obligation to attend the registration together with the competitors from their school. The accommodation and food for the referees will be paid by the organizer.

V. General instructions: Each competitor puts the registration card or other identification card about his/her technical degree (school identity card, DAN card, etc.). A necessary condition for the start is also a valid medical check-up which isn't older than one year to the date of competition. All competitors have to wear dobok according to the ITF rules (new or originate design).

For the sparring the hand safety protection (open palm and covered fingers), foot protectors, groin guard (male), moth guard are obligatory, and for youth-female and youth-male head guard is recommended. There will be a medical service in the hall. The competition will be proceeding according to the ITF rules and according to this proposition.

VI. Trophy: Teams on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place become medals and cup. Also the best schools will be evaluated.

VII. Protest: Protest against the referee decision during the competition could be exhibited especially by the coach, written and according to the procedure of ITF rules (till 5 minutes after the end of the sparring). The fee is 1000 CZK.
